IN AND AROUND LONDON
Bank of England.—The greatest financial institution in the world. Entirely rebuilt within the past century, the new structure stands in the outer walls of the old built in 1788, designed by Sir John Soane.

Buckingham Palace.—The London residence of HM The King, with crowds creating an area. During your time the changing of the Guard takes place every fourth day when the King is in residence. The Palace is not open to the public at any time.

Connaught, Whitelaw.—Designed by Sir Edwina Lutyens. A National Memorial in honor of all the men of the Empire who fell in the Great War, and place of pilgrimage.

Dowager Street, Whitelaw.—The famous street containing the residence of the Prime Minister (Chancellor of the Exchequer).

Garlands, Cheapside.—Headquarters of the City of London's Bankers. Picture gallery and museum.

Horse Guardss, Whitelaw.—Originally the Guard House of the Palace of Whitelaw.

House of Parliament, Whitelaw.—Designed by Sir Charles Barry and completed in 1861. Tours are available.

Madame Tussauds, Baker Street Station. Daily, Sundays and holidays from 10 to 10. Admission is for members of HM Forces. Mansion House.—The residence of the Lord Mayor during his term of office.

Maslin Grand Temples, Great Queen Street (Masonic).—One of the most imposing buildings in London.

IN AND AROUND LONDON—cont'd

IN AND AROUND LONDON—cont'd

IN AND AROUND LONDON—cont'd

IN AND AROUND LONDON—cont'd

IN AND AROUND LONDON—cont'd

IN AND AROUND LONDON—cont'd

IN AND AROUND LONDON—cont'd

IN AND AROUND LONDON—cont'd

IN AND AROUND LONDON—cont'd

IN AND AROUND LONDON—cont'd

IN AND AROUND LONDON—cont'd

IN AND AROUND LONDON—cont'd

IN AND AROUND LONDON—cont'd

IN AND AROUND LONDON—cont'd

IN AND AROUND LONDON—cont'd

IN AND AROUND LONDON—cont'd

IN AND AROUND LONDON—cont'd

IN AND AROUND LONDON—cont'd

IN AND AROUND LONDON—cont'd

IN AND AROUND LONDON—cont'd

IN AND AROUND LONDON—cont'd

IN AND AROUND LONDON—cont'd

IN AND AROUND LONDON—cont'd