Intourist Standard Itineraries For Soviet Travel
Summer Season Beginning April 1, 1933

Fifteen standard itineraries are offered by Intourist in the Soviet Union for the summer season of 1933. The prices range from $15 to $35 per person, depending on the itinerary. Intourist's services include transportation, accommodations, meals, and guided tours. All itineraries are available in English, French, and German, and can be customized to meet individual needs. For more information, please contact Intourist at 261 Fifth Avenue, New York, N.Y.

Tourist's Pocket Guide Book to the Soviet Union
A comprehensive, 700-page pocket guide contains a wealth of information about the Soviet Union's travel offerings. The guide includes maps, photographs, and articles by the Soviet Union's leading writers and scientists. It is available in English, French, and German. For a complete list of offerings and prices, please contact Intourist.

SOVIET TRAVEL
An Illustrated monthly magazine of travel in the U.S.S.R. It features articles, photographs, and articles by the Soviet Union's leading writers and scientists. It is available in English, French, and German. For a complete list of offerings and prices, please contact Intourist.

General Information
- Mails and Cables: Should be addressed to:
  - (Your full name)
  - s/o Intourist
  - Hotel Metropol
  - Moscow, U.S.S.R.

  Communications will be forwarded to you at any point in your itinerary.

- Purchases: Travelers who purchase art objects, antiques, furs, valuable souvenirs, etc., through the Torgovye Stroim, receive a permit to take their purchases out of the U.S.S.R. duty free. Trophies taken by hunters from under the auspices of Intourist may also be exported duty-free, although a trophy fee is made.

- Baggage: Care, transportation, and delivery of baggage up to 10 lbs. per person is included in the cost of Intourist service. While large pieces of baggage can be handled, they are sometimes the cause of inconvenience, and the tourist is advised to use suitcases and valises in so far as is practicable.

- Passports: American citizens make application for passports in person to the Clerk of any U.S. District Court or at the Passport Office in New York (Sub-Treasury Building), Boston, Chicago, Seattle, New Orleans and San Francisco. Non-citizens must have either a national passport or a document of identity and a re-entry permit to return to the U.S.

We shall be pleased to explain to non-citizens how to obtain and use in securing these documents.